Code Du Travail 1953

this book explores the conceptual framework of european employment law focusing on understanding the law s construction of employment relationships the book draws on extensive comparative research of the legal architecture of employment relations in national legal systems and eu law to analyse the traditional model of the contract of employment and the difficulties of using the traditional model to frame modern working relationships the authors then present a new model of the foundations of employment relationships based on the concept of a personal work nexus and explore the potential of their model to shape the future development of employment law throughout the book the authors analyse the interaction of domestic and eu employment law and discuss the possibility of future legal harmonisation in the area they conclude by exploring the potential for a common framework for european employment law in the context of broader debates surrounding the harmonisation of european private law
