La poésie congolaise de l'aube d'un jour nouveau (Essai). Complément au cours de littérature négro-africaine pour les classes du secondaire de l'usage de l'enseignant, de l'élève et de tout lecteur curieux 1978 all over Africa an explosion in cultural productions of various genres is in evidence whether in relation to music song and dance drama poetry film documentaries photography cartoons fine arts novels and short stories essays and auto biography the continent is experiencing a robust outpouring of creative power that is as remarkable for its originality as its all round diversity beginning from the late 1970s and early 1980s the African continent has experienced the longest and deepest economic crises than at any other time since the period after the second world war interestingly however while practically every indicator of economic development was declining in nominal and or real terms for most aspects of the continent cultural productions were on the increase out of adversity the creative genius of the African produced cultural forms that at once spoke to crises and sought to transcend them the current climate of cultural pluralism that has been produced in no small part by globalization has not been accompanied by an adequate pluralism of ideas on what culture is and or should be nor informed by an equal claim to the production of the cultural packaged or not globalization has seen to movement and mixture contact and linkage interaction and exchange where cultural flows of capital people commodities images and ideologies have meant that the globe has become a space with new asymmetries for an increasing intertwinement of the lives of people and consequently of a greater blurring of normative definitions as well as a place for re definition imagined and real as this book contemporary African cultural productions has done researching into African culture and cultural productions that derive from it allows us among other things to enquire into definitions explore historical dimensions and interrogate the political dimensions to presentation and representation the book therefore offers us an intervention that goes beyond the normative literary and cultural studies main foci of race difference and identity notions which while important in themselves might without the necessary historicizing and interrogating result in a discourse that rather re inscribes the very patterns that necessitate writing against this book is an invaluable compendium to scholars researchers teachers students and others who specialize on different aspects of African culture and cultural productions as well as cultural centers and general readers

La Rumba 2020-05-05 la danse a inspiré la littérature et la littérature a inspiré la danse mais comment fonctionne exactement l'articulation entre les deux et quelles sont les conséquences de leur réciprocité cet ouvrage analyse ce lien depuis la renaissance jusqu'à l'époque moderne de d'Aubigné à Francis Ponge de la danse macabre à la théorie de Laban la relation entre danse et littérature est variable parfois elle se fonde sur un principe esthétique parfois sur un principe thématique ou bien sociologique quelque soit la nature de ce rapport ce livre démontre qu'il est durable et riche de sens les moyens d'expression de la danse et de la littérature sont radicalement différents aussi

French Pages 2020-10-30 this study examines afro cuban and afro brazilian women writers as well as analysing the roles of women of african descent in cuban and brazilian literature initially literary imagination locked women into circumscribed roles a result of hierarchies embedded in slavery and colonialism and sustained by hierarchical theories on race and gender the discussion illustrates how these negative aspects have influenced the mainstream literary imagination that contrasts with the self portrayals created by women writers themselves even as there continues to be disadvantageous constructions there is no doubt that a modification has occurred over time in images representation and articulation it is a change directly associated with the instances when women themselves are the writers the historiographic image of the afro cuban and afro brazilian woman as a written object is ideologically replaced by a vision of her as a writing subject it is here that the vision of a creative multifaceted and diversified literature becomes important

Religion, Colonization and Decolonization in Congo, 1885-1960. Religion, colonisation et décolonisation au Congo, 1885-1960 2006-11-17 derived from the nationalist writings of josé martí the concept of cubanidad cubanness has always imagined a unified hybrid nation where racial difference is nonexistent and nationality trumps all other axes identities scholars have critiqued this celebration of racial mixture highlighting a gap between the claim of racial harmony and the realities of inequality faced by afro cubans since independence in 1898 in this book rebecca m bodenheimer argues that it is not only the recognition of racial difference that threatens to divide the nation but that popular regional sentiment further contests the hegemonic national discourse given that the music is a prominent symbol of cubanidad musical practices play an important role in constructing regional local and national identities this book suggests that regional identity exerts a significant influence on the aesthetic choices made by cuban musicians through the examination of several genres bodenheimer explores the various ways that race and place are entangled in contemporary cuban music she argues that racialized notions which circulate about different cities affect both the formation of local identity and musical performance thus the musical practices discussed in the book including rumba timba eastern cuban folklore and son are examples of the intersections between regional identity formation racialized notions of place and music making
